About Institution: -

Sri Padmaraj Vidya Vardhaka -Samstha, Sarangamath, Sindagi Dist: Vijayapura, Karnataka State, is a prestigious institution of this area, which was established with the blessings of H.H. late Shri Channaveer Swamiji of Sarangamath, Sindagi in the year 1969 with the support of many anthropists. The institution has a vision of serving the rural students and now runs various schools and colleges from KG to PG. Under the guidance of the present chairman H.H. Dr. Prabhu Sarangadev Shivacharyaji, the institution has grown to greater heights with modern outlook. The college was established in the year 1972 with the mission of making higher education more accessible and affordable for rural youths. Now, it imparts education in three faculties like, Arts, Commerce and Science at both undergraduate and postgraduate levels to more than 1200 students. The Arts and Commerce faculty is named after its donor Sangavi Porwal and Science is named after its donor Salimath family. The college has an imposing building built in 26 acres of land with well-furnished laboratories and well-equipped Library with rare books located at Sindagi town and has set high benchmark in academic standards. The college has conducted several seminars, workshops, conferences at state, National and International level.

1) explain about GST process?
→ The goods and services tax (GST) is a value added tax [VAT] levied on most goods and services sold for domestic consumption.

the GST is paid by consumer but it is remitted to the government by the businesses selling the goods and services.

Critics point out however that the GST is disproportionately burden people whose self-reported income are in the lowest and middle income brackets making it a regressive tax.

goods and services tax should not be confused with the generation-skipping trust, also abbreviated G.S.T. the goods and services tax is an indirect general sales tax that is applied to the cost of certain goods and services.

provisions on rebates to help offset the impact of GST on lower income households

3) explain Brief History of Indian income tax?

In India, this tax was introduced for the first time in 1860, by Sir James Wilson in order to meet the losses sustained by the government on account of the military mutiny of 1857. Thereafter, several amendments were made in it from time to time. In 1886, a separate income tax act was passed.

This act remained in force up to, with various amendments from time to time. In 1918, a new income tax was passed and again it was replaced by a new act which was passed in 1922. This tax was passed and again it was replaced by another new act which was passed in 1922.

Important concepts income tax

Income is money that an individual or business receives in exchange on providing a good or service or through investing capital.

2) Explain classification of capital & Revenue?

→ The concept of capital expenditure is the company's fund on fixed assets that provide a long-term gain to the business. The returns invest in this way in order to expand their business or to increase their chances of making money.

The variety of present production on manufacturing activity is prior due to previous capital investments. The company's future operations will be significantly impacted by the current capital expenditure decisions.

What is Revenue expenditure

Revenue expenditure is the business spends for the efficient functioning of the organisation. The returns will last for less than a year.

Revenue expenditure does not contribute to the ability to generate profits. Instead, it contributes to maintaining operational activities and helps manage the assets of the company.

Salaries, rent, electricity costs and transport charges are a few examples of Revenue expenditure.
